SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH
April 4–18

Join the movement to ERADICATE SEXUAL ASSAULT and HARASSMENT.

Wednesday, April 4

Survivor Slam: Assault Survivor Story Exhibition
5–10:30 p.m. | WPU Lower Lounge
Pitt UnMuted will host an art exhibition displaying beautiful pieces about survivors’ experiences with assault in the Pitt Community. Counselors will be available onsite. Hosted by UnMuted.

Friday, April 6

Sexual Misconduct Resource Fair
11 a.m.–1:30 p.m. | WPU Patio
Sexual assault prevention and counseling resources for student and faculty survivors and allies. Talk to representatives from the Title IX Office, SHARE, Pitt PD, SECCS and PAAR. Rain location: Towers Lobby

Thursday, April 12

Centering the Narratives of Transgender and Gender Non-Conforming Survivors of Sexual Assault
9 p.m. | WPU 630
Join Rainbow Alliance to discuss the narratives of transgender and gender non-conforming sexual assault survivors to improve the community response against these communities. Hosted by Rainbow Alliance.

Monday, April 9

Intersectionality of Sexual Violence: How the issue impacts marginalized populations
8–9:30 p.m. | WPU Dining Room A
Panel discussion with Pitt students and a Pitt alum from the Persad Center on the experiences and views on the impact of sexual violence on marginalized communities.

Wednesday, April 18

Candlelight Vigil in support of Survivors
8–10 p.m. | WPU Patio
A guided meditation and self-care workshop will follow in the WPU ballroom from 9–10 p.m. Coordinated by SHARE and Title IX.

Stand for a culture of dignity and respect for ALL.

For confidential counseling and support, contact SHARE Wellness Center, 2nd Floor Nordenberg Hall | 412–648–7930 | share.pitt.edu
To report an incident and receive support (including interim measures), contact TITLE IX at 500 Craig Hall | 412–648–7861 titleixcoordinator@pitt.edu