SUPPORTING STUDENTS OF IMMIGRANT COMMUNITIES:

A PANEL ON THE ROLE OF EDUCATORS AND ALLIES

This panel discussion will explore how educators of a variety of grade levels and settings (e.g. P-20 and graduate level) can support students and families of immigrant communities. Panelists include lawyers, community organizers, teachers, administrators, students, and parents. We invite university faculty, graduate students (doctoral/MA), preservice and practicing teachers, educators, education researchers, community members, and anyone interested!

MONDAY NOVEMBER 20 4:30 - 6:30 PM

School of Education, University of Pittsburgh

Center for Urban Education
Room 4303 Wesley W. Posvar Hall
230 South Bouquet Street

rsvp at www.bit.ly/pittpanel